

WARM – UP : 2 Buzzes this week about claiming for rights referring these cases to court for privacy and respect matters.

- Kate Middleton and Prince William against the release of topless Kate on photos
- Charlie Hebdo being accused of hate-monger after so-called insulting drawing in the context of rabble-rousing from part of the muslim world after the release of anti-muslim fim.

Our Debate : the thorny question of freedom of the press.

Choices that are made by some people have effects on others. Even if these choices are made in the name of freedom and even if the blight of extremism manipulates at every turn, would you consider any vexed issue and advocate avoiding discontent by all means or would you speak of a courageous act to “inform” people whatever the “information” ?

Related issue : Should freedom of speech give in to violence caused by whatever offending is a message or not ?