LONDON

Februari 17 2019

13 grader och solskin, Vem vill att England är regnigt? London är fint men för stort för mig, det inser jag snart och mer varje gång jag är här. Eller så blir jag mer och mer

London DAY ONE

1. 10 hour flight!
 We took the 10 hour flight from London to Manila. I slept through almost the whole flight but it felt like I was never sleeping. The plane was really comfy and the crew was great.

2. Rest & lunch @ itsu
 We decided to rest at the airport for a short while while we waited for our check-in. We went to itsu for lunch and had some ramen. It was really good and we had some miso soup. I got the chicken Teriyaki soup.

3. Covent Garden
 We wandered into Covent Garden and did some window shopping. We did go to a lot of interesting shops and we had a lot of fun. We saw some really nice things and we had a great time. We stopped at a cafe called the Gargoyle & got a coffee.

4. The British Museum
 We walked over to the British Museum just to see it. We got to go in and to see the Egyptian and Greek stuff. There were a lot of other cool things but I don't remember them all. I'll check them out in more detail later.

5. Sleep, Sleep, Sleep
 Once we were tired, we stopped by the British Museum. We went back to the Airbnb and we all crashed. We were all pretty tired.

6. Ye Old Cheshire Cheese
 Had dinner at Ye Old Cheshire Cheese to get the "old experience" and it was great. I ate the whole cheese. It was really good and filling. Although, I was pretty full & exhausted, so I was kinda out of it.

7. Thames River
 In the very last hour in London, we walked along the Thames River, which was nice. We also got to see the Big Ben & the Eye from afar. A long day but super interesting.
