

What did we learn about Bangladesh ?

- Bangladesh is a developing country and there are many natural disasters. It is a vulnerable country.
- They find solutions : they have floating gardens on the rivers ; they have boats for school with solar power ; they build natural dikes and mangroves to protect from erosion. They can become climatic refugees (= they migrate)