

...in the garden there was...

a little boy playing

a smashing purple swimming pool stood in the back of the garden·

a love apple tree in the garden··

its leaf on the green lawn in the garden·

Doves flew in the sky in the garden·

Black swans were floating on the water
in the garden·

Clouds looked like marshmallows in the garden and had a bitter taste·

It was Paradise... in the garden·

The little boy's body was floating dead·
