"Beijing Four Seasons Tea"

LAO SHE TEA HOUSE

"Beijing Four Seasons Tea"

Program List of Premiere performance

Beijing boasts a long history and profound civilization. Colorful Beijing folk culture is the crystal of labor and life of Beijing people and the abstraction from deep and simple life attitudes accumulated for thousands of years as well as rich and exquisite city emotions.

Based on the 20 years of performance experience of Lao She Tea House, in combination with modern technological methods as well as writing and directing skills, "Four Seasons Tea" originally integrates the performance, living scene of Beijing people, natural and culture landscapes of Beijing and representative folk programs together as well as create a visual space for understanding, accepting and enjoying Beijing culture before audiences from home and abroad.

The whole performance is divided in four parts: spring, summer, autumn, winter, using four different kinds of tea ceremonies to express four distinct frameworks. The tea art performance puts emphasis on the area feature of Beijing, human culture feature of Lao She Tea House and the traditional spirit embodied in the great tea bowl.

春 Spring · Jasmine Tea

夏 Summer · Green Tea

秋 Autumn · Oolong Tea

冬 Winter · Red Tea

The play tells of a visual story about "Old Beijing" and audiences will spend a happy and unforgettable night in Lao She Tea House.
