Okay !

- 5 Tell the students that you want to be a member of the student council because you want to become involved in all aspects of the school and student life, you want to grow into a leader and that you need their help in order to do that.

Tell them you believe that you would be best for the student council executive because you're a responsible student who has the best interest of not only the school but the students at heart as well.

- 10 Let them know that a vote for you is a vote in the right direction and one they won't regret.

Tell them you look forward to the exciting year ahead and hope to work with other members of the student council to make sure that it is the best year EVER at the school.

Check with your advisor to see if they'll let you throw candy to the crowd at the end of the speech. That way you'll throw off the other candidates and the students will be more worried about your candy than the next speaker.

- 15 Don't share your speech with other candidates. Don't share anything with anyone else- because at the last moment- someone may be under pressure and steal your idea before you get the chance to use it.

Do you have a school cheer? If so- throw that in. Make up a catchy slogan and throw it in there somewhere as well.

Look everyone in the eyes as you speak. (Practise the speech at least a dozen times.) Speak clear, slowly and be animated.

Good/cute/funny posters always help. AND candy is always a sure fire winner. GOOD LUCK!!!!!!!!!!!!

- 20 PS : I ran (and won) Student Council Office from 8th grade to Senior Year. :)
