

EXERCISE

Read and answer the questions:

Where and when is Thanksgiving celebrated?

Americans celebrate it on the 4th Thursday of November. It is one of the most important events for American families. People give thanks on this day to Native Americans and to their friends and families. It is also celebrated in Canada. Do you know when? What do you associate with Thanksgiving?

a) Thanksgiving is celebrated on a Tuesday.

True False

b) Thanksgiving is a time for Americans to gather with their family and friends.

True False

c) Thanksgiving is celebrated in all English speaking countries.

True False

e) Tick the two synonyms for the phrase in italics letters:

to appreciate to be thankful to be grateful to welcome

f) For each word in italics give their nature:

to give thanks

noun adjective verb

to be thankful

noun adjective verb

to be grateful

noun adjective verb

g) Rewrite the sentence using the synonyms.

People _____

People _____

h) Translate the sentence into French:

People give thanks on this day to Native Americans and to their friends and families.

