

EXERCISE

Je sais raconter l'histoire de Thanksgiving :

Tick the correct answer:

The story started in sixteen twenty nineteen sixty.

For religious reasons, they wanted their own church, some French English people decided to leave their country.

The people who left England were called the Pilgrims Native Americans.

They crossed the Pacific Atlantic Ocean on a boat called the Lusitania Mayflower.

It was very easy difficult for them on the new continent.

The weather was very hot cold and they got very sick and died but the Indians helped killed them.

In autumn winter 1621 their first harvest was very good bad ; so to thank God and the Indians, there was a big small dinner.

This was the first third Thanksgiving in the American history !

Je sais utiliser les verbes au prétérit pour raconter des évènements historiques

Complete with BE in the past:

It in Plymouth, Massachusetts that the story started in 1620.

The pilgrims English. Their ship called the Mayflower.

Their lives very hard on the new continent ; the weather very cold and the Pilgrims hungry.

Fortunately there Indians who helped them to survive and thanks to them their first corn harvest (= récolte) good.

The Pilgrims happy and in autumn 1621 there a big celebration to thank God and the Native Americans.

Complete with the correct verb in the past:

In 1620, some people (want) their own church. James III
..... (refuse) so they (sail) from Plymouth in the South of England on a ship, the Mayflower. They (come) to America in a place they (call) Plymouth.

The first winter (be) very cold and many Pilgrims
..... (get) sick and (die),

During the spring, two Native Americans (visit) the Pilgrims. They (speak) English. They (be) very friendly and they(help) the Pilgrims and
..... (show) them how to plant corn.

In spring 1621, the harvest (be) excellent and they had plenty of food. So to thank the Indians and God, the Pilgrims
..... (make) a big meal.

→ -ED

→ -à apprendre