Saint Patrick's Day is celebrated on March 17th every year. It is a cultural and religious national holiday in Ireland but people in the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom and countries all over the world celebrate Saint Patrick's Day. People wear green clothes and accessories, decorate with shamrocks, and enjoy traditional Irish food and music. There are parades on this day, participants wear costumes and play music. The biggest parade is in New York. The river in Chicago is green for the day. There are fireworks too. This day is associated with leprechauns protecting a pot of gold. The holiday honours Saint Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland. Saint Patrick was born in Britain and at the age of 16, was captured by Irish pirates who attacked his family. He was then transported to Ireland where he was a shepherd. Patrick escaped and he studied to be a priest. His mission was to convert the Irish to Christianity.
