Saint Patrick's Day is a popular holiday celebrated on the 17th of March. The holiday honours Saint Patrick, the man who brought* Christianity to Ireland. Saint Patrick's Day is a national holiday in Ireland. But people in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, and other countries celebrate the holiday, too*.

Irish people celebrate Saint Patrick's Day with the "wearing of the green." It means that they wear green clothes or shamrocks*. Green and shamrocks are symbols of Ireland. Many* cities with large Irish populations have huge* public celebrations. Boston celebrated its first Saint Patrick's Day celebration in 1737. Since* the 1760s New York City celebrates Saint Patrick's day with a parade. Chicago dyes* its river green for Saint Patrick's Day.
