

TERRITOIRE ET MEMOIRE

SEQUENCE :

How can you value your heritage through your profession in hospitality and catering ?

I) Comprehension orale

A. Watch the video at <https://youtu.be/N4DE0SCBKYO> and speak about Jacques Reymond's career (the 2 major parts in his life, his success as a manager and a professional chef)

The first step in Jacques' career

He reminds his grandfather who was a butcher. His father killed rabbits to earn a living. Jacques' grandfather marked Jacques' mind because he gave him his bag of knives.

The second step in Jacques' career

From a young age, Jacques wanted to be/ work as a cook
He started working at Anabella. He spent 2 years.
He went to Richmond and stayed there 4 or 5 years.

The third step in Jacques' career

Owning and running his restaurant was his big success/achievement.
He owned a modest restaurant who could accommodate 60 guests and he had 40 members of staff or employees.
A family spirit prevails in his restaurant. He says that it is the origin of his success.
Success came little by little and he cherished local, natural, native products. He says that he values the quality of the product which gave to his dishes a special flavour.
He prefers Australian products to French products.

Conclusion

Reymond is an elderly man who is very proud of what he has achieved.
He seemed to be a hard-working man, patient and welcoming. He makes me think of a wise man.

II) Following-up work :

A) A few facts about Australia.

Location : The Indian ocean, an island an continent.

Prime minister : Scott Morrison

Capital city : Camberra

Other cities : Sydney, Perth, Melbourne, Adelaide,

Interests : big coral reef, beaches, desert and wild life (the bush) with kangaroos and other species.

Ethnicity : Aboriginal people are the indigenous people. They are socially and economically disadvantaged because of oppression and prejudices

Between 1869 and 1969, the government kidnapped the mixed-children of white and aboriginal mothers to work as servants in white families.

It was a tragedy for which the government publicly apologized in 2018.

B)The stolen generation

Sorry apology by the former Primer Minister : Kevin Rudd

Apology Transcript ▾

The Speaker of the House (Hon Harry Jenkins MP): The Clerk.

The Clerk: Government business notice number 1, Motion offering an apology to Australia's Indigenous peoples.

The Speaker: Prime Minister.

Prime Minister (Hon Kevin Rudd MP): Mr Speaker, I move:

That today we honour the Indigenous peoples of this land, the oldest continuing cultures in human history.

We reflect on their past mistreatment.

We reflect in particular on the mistreatment of those who were Stolen Generations - this blemished chapter in our nation's history.

The time has now come for the nation to turn a new page in Australia's history by righting the wrongs of the past and so moving forward with confidence to the future.

We apologise for the laws and policies of successive Parliaments and governments that have inflicted profound grief, suffering and loss on these our fellow Australians.

We apologise especially for the removal of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children from their families, their communities and their country.

For the pain, suffering and hurt of these Stolen Generations, their descendants and for their families left behind, we say sorry.

To the mothers and the fathers, the brothers and the sisters, for the breaking up of families and communities, we say sorry.

And for the indignity and degradation thus inflicted on a proud people and a proud culture, we say sorry.

We the Parliament of Australia respectfully request that this apology be received in the spirit in which it is offered as part of the healing of the nation.

For the future we take heart; resolving that this new page in the history of our great continent can now be written.

We today take this first step by acknowledging the past and laying claim to a future that embraces all Australians.

A future where this Parliament resolves that the injustices of the past must never, never happen again.

A future where we harness the determination of all Australians, Indigenous and non-Indigenous, to close the gap that lies between us in life expectancy, educational achievement and economic opportunity.

A future where we embrace the possibility of new solutions to enduring problems where old approaches have failed.

A future based on mutual respect, mutual resolve and mutual responsibility.

A future where all Australians, whatever their origins, are truly equal partners, with equal opportunities and with an equal stake in shaping the next chapter in the history of this great country, Australia.
