

Future Tense Exercise

Fill in the blanks with an appropriate verb form that indicates future.

1. We Rome in January.

visit
are visiting
will visit

2. John and Alice in May.

get married
are getting married
will get married

3. I probably be home late tonight.

will
am going to am

4. I think our party the election.

will win
would win

Future Tense Exercise

is going to win

5. I help you?

Will

Shall

Would

6. you help me?

Will

Shall

Should

7. I kill you if you read my letters again.

will

must

would

8. By next year we in America for ten years.

will be living

Future Tense Exercise

will have lived

will live

9. I will think of you when I on the beach next week.

will be lying

am lying

will have been lying

10. I will give all that I have had

will have

11. Don't call them now – they dinner.

have

will have

will be having

12. By next Christmas I

Future Tense Exercise

here for ten years.

Please select 2 correct answers

will work

will have worked

will have been working

Answers

1. We are visiting Rome in January.
2. John and Alice are getting married in May.
3. I will probably be home late tonight.
4. I think our party will win the election.
5. Shall I help you?
6. Will you help me?
7. I will kill you if you read my letters again.
8. By next year we will have lived in America for ten years.
9. I will think of you when I am lying on the beach next week.
10. I will give all that I have.
11. Don't call them now – they will be having dinner.
12. By next Christmas I will have worked / will have been working here for ten years.