

Tool box

Vocabulary which can be useful :

Mohawk hairstyle :

leather jacket :

Strict = rigid = severe / Town hall = mairie / weird = strange

ancient = old / eccentric

Neighbours or strangers?

British are said to be the opposite of the French. Unlike the French, they are eccentric and you can see a lot of people looking weird in London streets, for instance. Moreover, contrary to the French, they aren't good at cooking. A lot of people find British food disgusting, whereas the French cooking is said to be the best in the world. It's a matter of taste! On the one hand, we can assume that our two countries are different but on the other hand, we are neighbours and are quite the same people! However, this little battle doesn't seem to be over. So, let's fight against stereotypes instead of using them!

Observe les mots soulignés.

De quoi s'agit-il? Qu'est ce qu'ils expriment? :

Quels mots veulent dire :

Alors que	D'une part... D'autre part	Contrairement à	Au contraire de(s)	Au lieu de	Cependant

Young punks

British Students

London City Hall

London Tower Bridge

Utilise les mots ou groupes de mots du tableau pour faire 5 phrases pour comparer les images ci-dessus :