

MEET OTHER PECULIAR CHILDREN

She is a tall teenage girl with ginger hair.
 She is peculiar because she is able to produce and manipulate fire with her hands. She has little control of her ability. That's why* she must always wear rubber gloves. If she doesn't wear them, she accidentally burns things.
 She is a quiet, kind and gentle person. She is not very talkative because she doesn't speak very often. Enoch quite likes her.

That's why = c'est pourquoi

They are two peculiar boys dressed up in strange costumes. They are quite shy and quiet. They never speak to anyone and they are always together. They are extremely affectionate and they sometimes use telepathy to communicate with each other*.
Without* their mask, they have pale, scaly skin, and serpentine eyes and fangs.

Without = sans
 With each other = entre eux

He is peculiar because he has the ability to inanimate dead things and persons for brief periods of time. He needs a lot of energy to use his power and he collects hearts. The other children find him arrogant, grumpy and a bit rude. That's why he is often alone. However, he is very caring and quite protective with the younger children in the house. Olive gets on well* with him.

Get on well = bien s'entendre

If you are allergic to bees, don't approach him! Indeed, this peculiar child is able to command and protect the many bees that live inside him. How scary! A few bees fly out of his mouth when he opens it. That's why he usually wears a beekeeper's net hat. The bees only sting when he is angry or when he commands them. He is a smart boy and he is also very honest because he always says clearly what he thinks. He is quite proud of himself, especially when he helps his friends.

Powers – Verbs + Complement

Personality – Adjectives