JAMES BLUNT

A min | E/G# | G | D/F#

There are children standing here,
arms outstretched into the sky,

Brothers lie in shallow graves,
lost without a trace,

Tears drying on their face,
his since he's been here.

Houses burn beyond repair, the smell of death is in the air,

Tracer light ing up the sky, it's another family's turn to die,

G

a weeping woman to in misery says: "he has been here."

And I see no bravery, no bravery, no bravery...
Verse 2:
There are children standing here,
Arms outstretched into the sky,
But no one asks the question why,
He has been here.

Old men kneel to accept their fate,
Wives and daughters cut and raped.
A generation drenched in hate.
Yes, he has been here.
