2 The birth of graffiti

1 Listen to the audio. Reorder Taki 183's story.

audio

5 The other person denounced Taki and his friends.

3 The elevator went to the bottom of the building.

4 A policeman was passing by.

1 Taki's group was tagging the elevator.

7 Taki and his friends got away.

6 The policeman didn't do anything.

2 A stranger was there.

2 Listen to the audio again. Tick the correct answer(s).

Real artists arose when they ..... ❒ wrote bigger than others. ☑ got their own style. ❒ filled in blank walls.
The two causes of the spread of graffiti are ..... ❒ the media. ❒ the police. ❒ young people. ☑ the subway.
They thought Julio204 was ..... ❒ a date. ❒ a nickname. ❒ a secret code. ❒ a pseudonym.
"Taki 183" stands for ..... ☑ a Greek nickname and his street number.
❒ his mother's name and his street number. ❒ his mother's Greek name and a number symbolizing respect.

3 What is the funny thing about an artist with a nickname? Reorder Taki 183's quote to find out. Explain.

body / that / celebrity / a / knows / to / be /

The funny thing about an artist with a nickname is "to be a celebrity that nobody knows". It means that you can create your art anonymously without getting into trouble with the authorities.

4 If your class was a band, what would its nickname be? Imagine three nicknames.

Ecueillé Year 9

4ème Funny Boys And Girls

Mrs D's band