Bonfire night

On Bonfire night, people remember the gunpowder plot, a secret plan to overthrow the King of England.

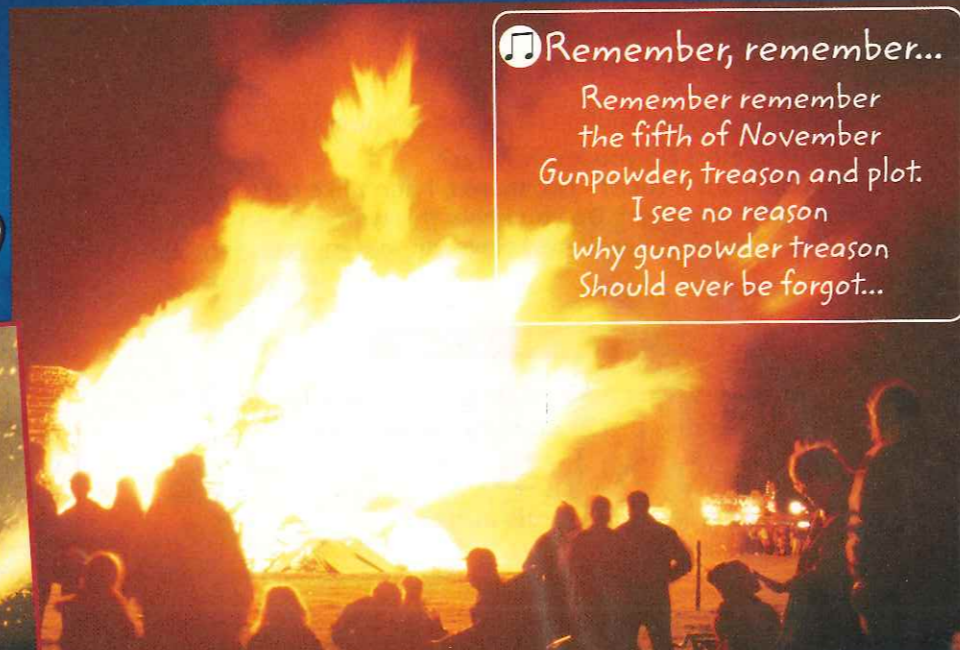

The Protestant King James I reigned from 1603 to 1625.

Bonfire Night is also called Guy Fawkes Night. Fawkes was a Catholic. He tried to blow up* the Houses of Parliament and to kill the King, but he was arrested and executed for treason.

*gunpowder: poudre, *plot: complot, *blow up: faire exploser

► Find the date of the Gunpowder Plot. Who was King then?

Remember, remember...

Remember remember
the fifth of November
Gunpowder, treason and plot.
I see no reason
why gunpowder treason
Should ever be forgot...

Children use old clothes to make a Guy, and people give them money to buy firecrackers. In the evening, you make a bonfire to burn the Guy.

► Listen to the Gunpowder Plot nursery rhyme, then learn it by heart.

Do it Yourself

► Classroom Royal Family Tree

Your teacher has royal role cards for you.

At home: read the information about your royal character and decorate your card.

In class: present yourself to your friends: Hello, I'm Queen Elizabeth, I...

Then place all the cards on the classroom wall to create your own royal family tree.
